

SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS-NEWS
Book & Author Luncheon

benefiting the
Cancer Therapy & Research Center (CTRC)
At The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio
Phase I Clinical Research Program

The 20th Annual San Antonio Express-News Book & Author Luncheon will be held at the Marriott Rivercenter, located at 101 Bowie Street in San Antonio, Texas on Monday, November 14, 2011. Book sales open at 10:00 a.m and the luncheon program starts at 11:30 a.m. More than $2.5 million has been raised to benefit the CTRC Phase I Clinical Research Program over the nineteen-year history of this fundraiser.

Each year, prominent authors are invited to entertain the luncheon audience with captivating and witty tales from their best-selling books.

John Besh, New Orleans/San Antonio chef (Lüke restaurant) and author of “My New Orleans” and upcoming “My Family Table: A Passionate Plea for Home Cooking” is a James Beard Award winner and Iron Chef champion. Joining Besh on the stage will be children’s author Chris Van Dusen, whose fall release is “King Hugo’s Huge Ego”; Richard Paul Evans, author of the #1 best-selling “The Christmas Box” introduces “Lost December”, a heartwarming holiday story that only “The King of Christmas Fiction” (NY Times) can write. Elin Hilderbrand, uses her own Nantucket as the backdrop for her 4th novel, NY Times best seller, “Silver Girl.”

To attend this year’s event please visit <http://makelivesbetter.uthscsa.edu/bookauthor> for a reservation form. Tickets are $80 for individuals or $800 for a table of ten.
